

EPISODE #307: JESSICA JACKLEY ON NOT WAITING FOR PERMISSION TO CHANGE THE WORLD

L3Leadership.org/307

ABOUT JESSICA:

Jessica Jackley is an entrepreneur, investor and speaker. Over the last decade she has focused on financial inclusion, the sharing economy and social justice. She is also the founder of Alltruists and a co-founder of Untapped Capital. Jessica also co-founded Kiva, the first crowdfunding site for global microenterprises. Since 2005, Kiva has facilitated over $1.5B in loans worldwide. Jessica has an MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a certificate in Global Leadership and Public Policy from the Harvard Kennedy School, a BA

6 KEY TAKEAWAYS:

In this episode, Aradhna talks about how to become a leader in the community and striking a balance between work and life.

1. Jessica talks about how Kiva got its start and grew into the billion dollar company it is today.
2. She gives advice to other people who have an interest in entrepreneurship.
3. Jessica tells listeners what role her faith played in her path.
4. She talks about her other endeavors outside of Kiva, including Profounder, Alltruists, and her newest venture, Untapped.
5. She shares how she is able to balance work and family and how her entrepreneurial path allows for her to be there for her family.
6. Jessica tells us what she's learned from having her platform.

“You can work entrepreneurially in a large organization.”
–Jessica Jackley

CONNECT WITH JESSICA: <http://www.jessicajackley.com/>

Twitter

Thanks for tuning into this week's episode of the L3 Leadership Podcast. If you enjoyed this episode, please head over to Apple Podcasts, Stitcher, or Google Play to subscribe and leave us a rating and review.