ABOUT ANDREW REICHERT:

Andrew is the CEO and founder of Birgo Realty, a Pittsburgh-based private equity real estate firm with 270 million dollars in assets under management in 2,800+ multi-family units.

Through Birgo Realty, he oversees a team of over 80 employees as they raise capital from investors as they purchase and manage multi-family residential real estate.

A passionate entrepreneur, Andrew has founded four companies and has been a part of several other startups. Additionally, he launched a nonprofit focused on financial literacy and is active in local nonprofits, including his church.

4 KEY TAKEAWAYS:

In this episode of the L3 Leadership Podcast, Doug's longtime friend Andrew Reichert talks about real estate investing, successful entrepreneurship, leadership, the importance of taking sabbaticals, and more!

1. Andrew provides insight into his journey from working for a company to starting his own company.
2. He defines what leadership means to him, and how to surround yourself with other leaders that can bring diversity to your organization.
3. Andrew talks about the importance of sabbaticals for him personally, and why he encourages his employees to take them as well.
4. We talk about the role of core values in shaping culture, and why a mission should transcend beyond money and self-interest.
